

OUTPATIENT CONSULTATION NOTE

Visit date 10/08/2026 11:15

Patient Name	Meera Iyer	OPD No.	LC-9-2231
Age / Sex	61 Years / Female	Visit type	Follow up
Date of visit	10/08/2026 11:15	Consultant	Dr. Neha Joshi

REASON FOR VISIT

Routine review of diabetes, blood pressure and thyroid. Reports tiredness and mild tingling in both feet for the past month. Occasional morning headache. No chest pain or breathlessness.

VITALS AND SCREENING

BLOOD PRESSURE 150/94 mmHg	PULSE 80 / min	WEIGHT 69 kg	RANDOM SUGAR 236 mg/dL	BMI 28.4
-------------------------------	-------------------	-----------------	---------------------------	-------------

ASSESSMENT

Diagnosis	ICD-10	Control
Diagnosis: Type 2 diabetes mellitus	E11.9	Poor on current regimen
Diagnosis: Essential hypertension	I10	Above target
Diagnosis: Hypothyroidism	E03.9	TSH due
Diagnosis: Diabetic peripheral neuropathy	E11.42	New, mild

CLINICAL IMPRESSION

Sugar control is poor and blood pressure is above target. TSH was last checked 6 months ago. Kidney function to be rechecked as creatinine was borderline earlier. Foot sensation reduced to monofilament.

PRESCRIPTION

Meera Iyer | 10/08/2026

Rx

#	Medicine	Strength	Dose and frequency	Started	Note
1	Tab Metformin	500 mg	Twice daily after meals	15/03/2018	Continue
2	Tab Telmisartan	40 mg	Once daily, morning	20/06/2017	Continue
3	Tab Amlodipine	5 mg	Once daily	10/08/2026	New
4	Tab Levothyroxine	75 mcg	Once daily, empty stomach	02/11/2019	Continue
5	Tab Atorvastatin	20 mg	Once daily at night	10/08/2026	New
6	Tab Methylcobalamin	1500 mcg	Once daily	10/08/2026	New

TESTS ADVISED

HbA1c	Creatinine	eGFR	Potassium	TSH	Lipid profile
-------	------------	------	-----------	-----	---------------

ADVICE

- Reduce rice, sweets and fried food. Walk 30 minutes daily.
- Check both feet every day and wear well fitting footwear.
- Keep a home blood pressure log, morning and evening, and bring it to the next visit.

NEXT VISIT

Review in 4 weeks with the reports above.

N. Joshi

Dr. Neha Joshi, MD
Internal Medicine
Reg. No. MMC-2011-40218